CLASSICAL GUITARIST PETAR JANKOVIC TO PERFORM AT WINDHOVER CENTER FOR THE ARTS

FOND DU LAC, WIS. — International award-winning classical guitarist Petar Jankovic will perform Thursday, March 5 at Windhover Center for the Arts beginning at 7:30pm. Jankovic is part of the Searl Pickett Classical Music Series sponsored by Marian University.

Tickets are $12 for adults, $6 for students. There is no admission cost for Marian University students.

Jankovic's expressive performances and a technical mastery found only among the world's top musicians make it easy to understand why he has received overwhelming international acclaim.

Since beginning his professional music career in 1985, delighted audiences at recitals and enlightened students in his master classes throughout Europe and the United States. As a performer at major competitions around the globe, his universally evocative sound has won high regard with the world's classical music community, and as a result, Jankovic has garnered numerous prestigious awards. Some of these include:

he has

1998 Bronze medal at the 1998 H.R.H. Princess Cristina 13th International Guitar Competition, Madrid (Spain)

1998 Bronze medal at the M.M. Ponce International guitar competition, Mexico City (Mexico)

1997 Graduate Top Strings Award, Indianapolis Matinee Musicale, first guitarist ever to win this award!

Every time he walks on stage, Jankovic exudes talent, skill, intelligence, and charisma. His energy spills into audiences – and whether they have heard him play one time or one hundred times, they find themselves moved.

Currently, Jankovic is a member of Indiana University Jacobs School of Music's esteemed faculty.
